Hard on Josh.

Josh Ashley has introduced a resolution in the House calling Congress to surround immigration with certain restrictions, notably an educational qualification.
It is well for the statesman from Anderson that he is not an alien clamoring for admission to this country, else this very clause which he supports so vigorously might result in his exclusion from the land of the free and the home of the brave.—Chester La ntern

For Bilious and Sick Headache.

Take Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup.
It sweetens the stomach, aids digestion and acts as a gentle stimulant on the liver and bowels without irritating these organs. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures biliousness and habitual constipation. Does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take.
Remember the name ORINO and refuse to accept any substitute. Sold by Mc-Master Co.

The Vidette and The Field, the dispensary organs, should consolidate their forces. It will take them both to sustain the waning cause of the G. M. I.—Newberry Observer.

FOR SALE—A number of young bronze gobblers. At seven months old weigh 18 to 20 pounds. Grown ones weigh Frightfully Burned.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Sores, Eczema and Piles. 25c at McMaster Co.'s, and Jno. K. McMaster & Co.'s, druggists.

The cotton grower is reminded that the way to get things is to stand pat, after the manner of Republicans who do that way to keep the high tariff in commission.—Washington Star.

A Habit to Be Encouraged.

The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, colds and croup, to which children are susceptible are quickly cured by its use. It counter-acts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to little ones with a feeling of perfect security. Sold by Obeard Drug
